Lowell High School, Lowell High School, may we ever stand . . . the annex . . . Coburn Hall . . . the "new" building . . . the addition . . the courtyard . . . Lucy Larcom Park . . . the canal . . . cross corridors . . . peeling paint . . . broken windows . . . the old clock . . . the new clock . . . freshman, sophomore, junior and senior years . . .

LOWELL

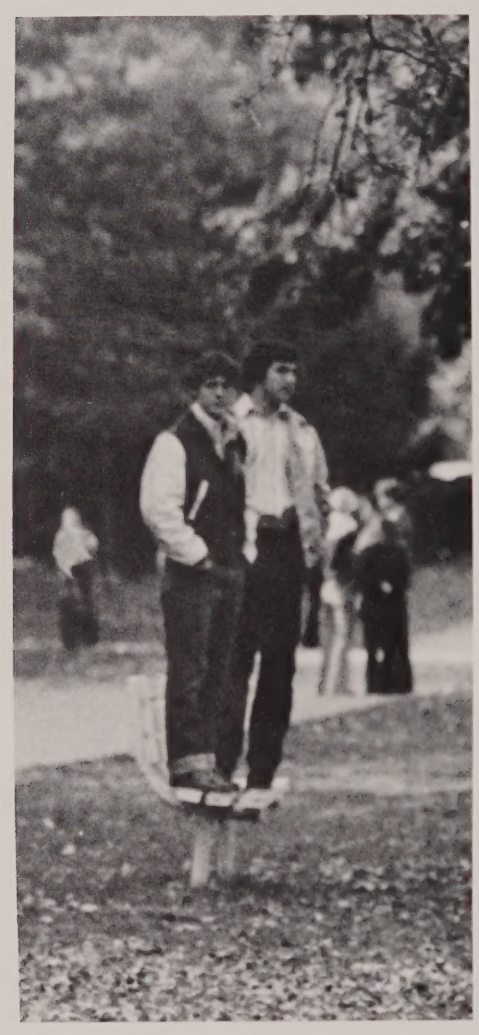
Our freshman year . . . coming from all sections of the city to report to Lowell High . . . September 1975 . . . enjoying homeroom in the annex (and being threatened with that again Senior year!) . . . tiny lockers . . . the confusion . . . mini-reunions . . . comparing schedules and teachers . . . sitting like a zombie in your first class of the day . . . not knowing anyone in the room . . . being overwhelmed . . . celebrating the day you threw away your copy of the LHS floor plan . . . hanging on to your Jr. High friends for dear life . . . finally getting the hang of it all . . . graduation from the Robinson or the Daley . . . your first summer away from Lowell High . . .

Sophomoritis . . . the earlier starting time . . . not being "the babies" anymore . . . feeling superior to the freshmen . . . the 3rd floor . . . Mr. O'Brien (for the first time) . . . lunch 2 . . . turning 16 . . . coming out of your shell and meeting people . . .

The third year "Pros" . . . knowing every crack and angle of Lowell High . . . PSAT's . . . class ranks . . . the blizzard of '78 . . . National Honor Society Candidates . . . "ripping off" tests . . . hanging around with seniors . . . getting your license . . . the Harvest at the Sheraton Rolling Green . . . R4 . . . lockers in the cross corridor . . . the cafeteria's paint job . . . windows being nailed shut . . . the JCL winning the chariot race . . . attendance policy suspended . . . Project Add Rally . . . the 1st Annual Victory Dance . . .

The triumphant seniors . . . your last "first day of school" . . . not having to look up to anyone . . . getting gypped out of the first floor . . . new schedules . . . three lunches . . . Mods A,B,C,D, and E . . . half a year of health . . . classified ads in the Review . . . having too many books to take home and trying to decide which ones to leave in school



. . . hoping you would not doze off in Algebra . . . looking for a microscope that works . . . signing up for every extra-curricular activity you can so it looks good on your college applications . . . the CPR dummies . . . wishing you could hear your name over the loudspeaker just once before you graduate . . . the boys in the cross corridor . . . lab reports . . . term papers . . . "hamming it up" when the photographer comes around . . . waiting for hours in guidance to get your schedule changes made . . . DECA . . . praying for your English teacher to be absent . . . the Valentines Day dance (who could forget THAT?!!) . . . the formation of the Friends of Lowell High . . . starting your homework late Sunday night . . . Monday morning blues . . . catching a glimpse of something scooting across the floor . . . wondering what it was . . .

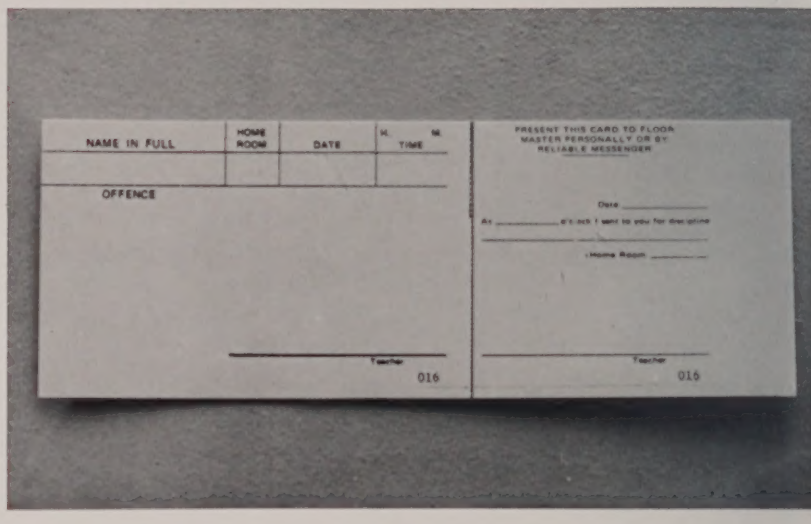
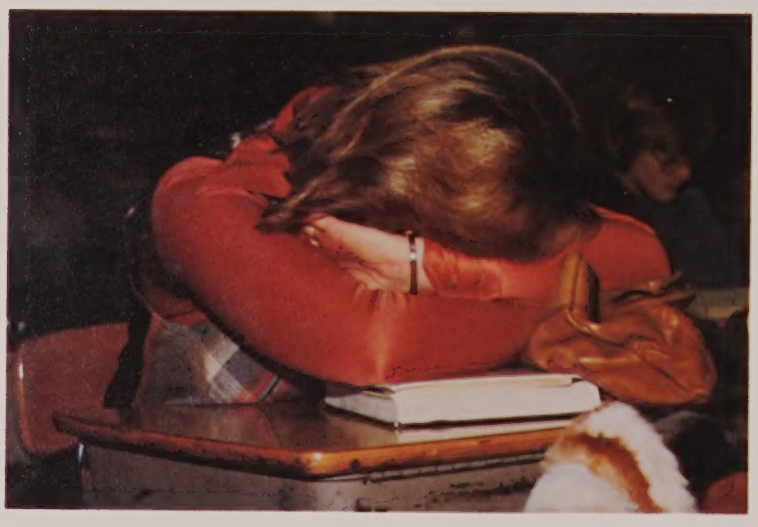
running to catch your bus . . . Lucy Larcom Park between classes . . . wishing you had a different lunch period . . . detentions . . .demerits . . . struggling to get your locker open . . . Mr. O'Brien's new office . . . breakfasting at Palmer's or Ricky's or MaryLou's or Eat and Run . . . the work-study program . . . hanging out at the Janas Rink . . . The "Kinks" concert . . . scholarship applications . . . the "aroma" from the cafeteria . . . signing up for road lessons . . . the pastime of biting your pencil . . .

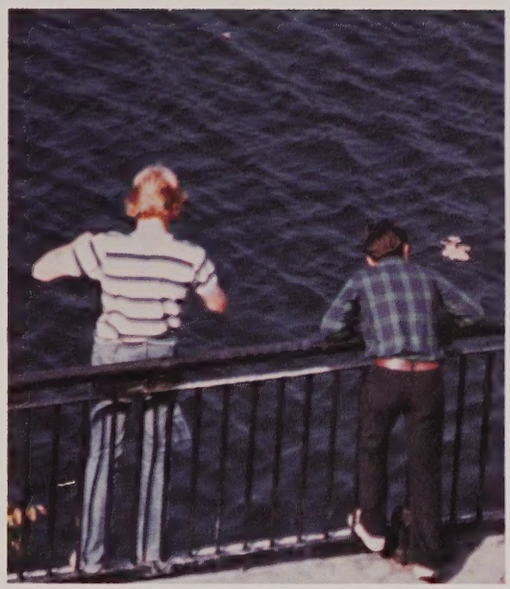


coming in late to miss a test . . . getting swamped with homework . . . rowdie assemblies . . . boring assemblies . . . trying to get aspirin from the nurse . . . library passes . . . girls wearing ties . . . cramming . . . cutting the freshmen and sophomores in the lunch line . . . LHS calendars . . . watching "Saturday Night Live" . . . never wanting to see M&M's again after selling your three cases . . . doing anything to get out of class . . . the girls' gymnastics team making the states for the first time . . . having to fetch coffee for your study hall teacher . . .

being told to throw away the gum you just started chewing . . . hearing the new bells and thinking it's a fire drill . . . the guidance newsletters that always came out months later than they should have . . . trying to study in study hall but never getting anywhere . . . praying for the bell to ring . . . heading for the ULowell library to study for your finals . . . taking any courses available to get your 18 credits . . . the Fridays before vacation . . .



going to the road, then Gage Field, then back to the road . . . R-O-W-D-I-E . . . the hockey games against Shawsheen Tech . . . agonizing over a Physics problem . . . trying to get a balcony seat for the assembly . . . the gruesome Driver Ed movies . . . a day when you actually enjoyed gym class . . . informing the 3rd period History class about the surprise quiz given to the 1st period History class . . .



taking quizzes, tests, one-thirds, and make-ups . . . getting stopped in the corridor . . . listening to the addition being built as you sat in your class on the canal side . . . only 18 girl officers . . . wondering how your name got in Senior Scoops . . . the Spring and Winter plays . . . SAT's, ACH's and FAF's . . . "scoops" . . . having to call Mr. O'Brien's office so he wouldn't call your house when you skipped . . . the boys playing the girls in volleyball during gym . . . daily excursions to the guidance suite . . . Mr. Wood . . . Miss Berman . . . having three substitutes in one day . . . asking your teacher to repeat the question (a definite no-no) . . . club meetings . . . conveniently forgetting to show your parents your report card . . . being the only student present in your particular row . . . being told by a teacher or guard that "You're not supposed to be here" . . . the stale doughnuts in the caf . . . wishing one-thirds were over . . .

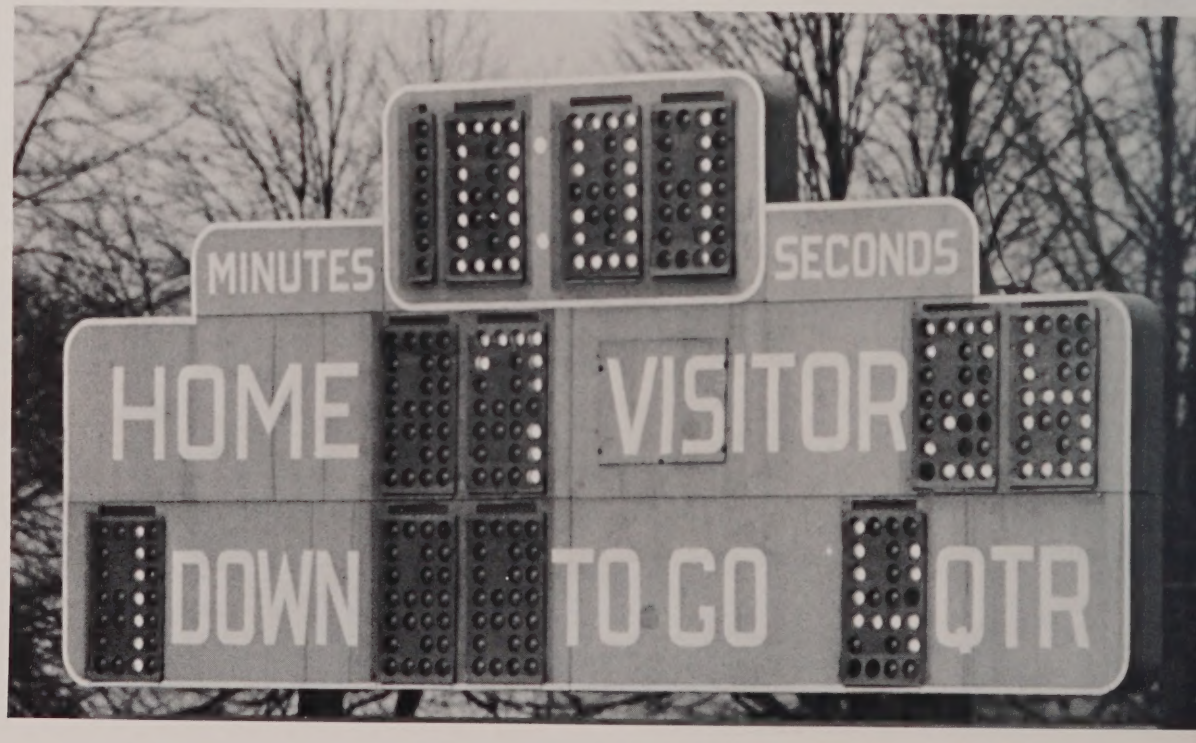
snow days . . . being proud to say you're from Lowell after the Thanksgiving Day annihilation of Lawrence . . . the two new wardens . . . report cards . . . Ricky's before school . . . Ricky's during school . . . Ricky's after school . . . the headless skeleton owned by the Science department . . . going to college frat parties . . .

driving to school . . . the basketball team winning the Christmas tournament . . . Lowell High T-shirts . . . running for class officer . . . the Walbrook . . . reading "trots". . . listening to tapes in the library . . . being in a daze all day . . . days when the bells rang either too late or too early . . .



ending up with 5 studies a day . . . faking answers . . . never having enough time to finish a test . . . giving out your senior picture and trying to think of something original to write on the back . . . Senator Paul Tsongas at the Thanksgiving pep rally . . . TOGA, TOGA, TOGA . . . not getting called on when you finally know the answer . . . the raising of the drinking age . . . reading the graffiti on the desks . . . gray letter jackets with red sleeves . . . standard, college, honors, and AP courses . . . the showers in the boys' gym . . . counting down the remaining school days . . .

the arrival of May . . . getting measured for caps and gowns . . .not wanting to look ahead . . . end of the year reminiscing . . . senior skip day . . . June . . . the final senior bash — the prom . . . Hampton Beach . . . making plans for summer . . . thinking how quickly senior year went by . . . graduation practice . . . the closing minutes of the final year . . . a graduation complete with tears and goodbyes . . . throwing your cap in the air . . . leaving the place where we spent one of the best parts of our lives . . . Lowell High School.

We humbly dedicate this SPINDLE to ourselves...
For we have survived...

Peter S. Stamas
Headmaster

It has been said that wisdom is knowing what to do; skill is knowing how to do it; and virtue is doing what must be done. If you look in retrospect at your elementary and secondary school experiences, you will see that these three attributes were at the very core of the educational program to which you were exposed. For the most part they were presented to you at the developmental level. The remainder of your lives will demand a more critical application of these attributes. The kind of person you will be will, in large measure, be determined by how fully you will have developed them and how diligently you will have applied them. We at Lowell High School congratulate you and commend you on your graduation and we wish you health and success in your future endeavors.

Student Council

The Student Council had a good year. They sponsored two student dances held at Cumnock Hall which enabled them to award scholarships to outstanding council members. They also sponsored two blood banks where over 200 pints of blood were donated by students and faculty members.

Distributive Education

Distributive Education of Lowell High School is a very successful work/study program. This year's program consisted of seventy-three juniors and seniors who attended classes in the morning and went to work in the afternoon. The subjects studied dealt with human relations, economics and how to get along in the business world. Not every minute was spent working and studying, however. A Gong Show, Halloween Party, a flea market and a birthday party for Mr. Moorehouse were held as well as many other events organized by the students and their coordinators, Mr. David Moorehouse and Mr. Edward Parlee.

The 1978-79 School year was a great year that will be remembered by everyone in the Distributive Education Program.

Personnel

LHS Officers

Under the leadership of Colonel Alice Lemay and Lieutenant Colonel Sharon McCaffrey, the 1978-79 Lowell High School Officers enjoyed an extremely successful year. The girls participated in the Regatta and Memorial Day Parades, represented Lowell High School at many civic functions, held various fund raising events and taught the incoming officers.

Highlighting the year were the Annual Harvest Semi-Formal and the Officers' Mid-Winter Formal Ball, topped off by the Girl Officers' Annual Alumnae Banquet where scholarships were awarded to four deserving officers: the Frances R.H. Leggatt Scholarship Award went to Theresa Mahoney, and the Girl Officers' Alumnae Scholarship was accepted by Sharon McCaffrey, with Honorable Mentions to Linda Kelley and Angela Vezina.

Student Activities Night

On March 21, Student Activities Night was held. Todd Beati and Sue Foley oversaw the program as masters of ceremonies. Despite poor attendance, the performing students greatly rewarded those who did attend.

Highlighting the night were the Dodge Ball competition, the obstacle course, co-ed volley ball and the outstanding performance of the LHS Gymnastics team. In the co-ed activities, the boys over-powered the girls; however, the girls redeemed themselves by winning the tug-of-war. Revenge was cheerfully submitted themselves for target practice in a Dodge Ball game.

The 1978-79 year was a very productive one. Three cake sales were held and over $1,000 profit was reached.

In October, Mr. Boisjoly gave the first part of a slide-lecture series on France. In November, preparations were made for the successful Christmas Gourmet Dinner. The annual St. Valentine's Day Party was held in February along with the second part of Mr. Boisjoly's slide-lecture series. Later in the month, Father Morrissette gave a very interesting lecture on the importance of learning foreign languages. In May, preparations began for the annual cookout held on June 16. The year was a memorable one for all those involved.

Junior Classical League

This year, the JCL had a record membership of 132. Craig Robbins, president, was also a state MJCL officer, State Historian — the first Lowell student to be elected to state office.

In November, the Saturnalia was celebrated at the Athenian Corner, and the outfit to wear was, of course, the toga. Entertainment consisted of a number of skits, devised and performed by JCL'ers.

On the Ides of March, several JCL members journeyed to U Mass, Boston for Classics Day.

The final event of the year, the State Convention, took place at Taunton High School on May 12, where LHS JCL'ers competed with students from all over Massachusetts. LHS boasted prize winners in Academics, Mythology, Costume, Athletics and the Scrapbook Contest.

All in all, it was an active, productive, and enjoyable year.

The Philadelphia Story

Under the direction of Mr. Michael Sokolowski and Mr. B. Douglas Townshend, the LHS Drama and Choral Arts departments presented The Philadelphia Story on February 2nd. The story centered around the proposed marriage of Tracy

Samantha Lord to George Kittredge and told of the two men who ultimately upset Tracy's plans.

Fred Gallagher delivered a tremendous rendition as the suave C.K. Dexter Haven. Jim Slattery, as reporter Mike Connor, and Sharyn Hardy, as socialite Tracy Samantha Lord, combined to delight the audience with their sparkling performances.

Due both to the solid performances of the talented, well directed cast and the presence of several memorable scenes, The Philadelphia Story was a winning production.

Opposite page, clockwise from top: The light-headed Tracy relaxes in the arms of Mike Connor after a late night swim in the pool; Brian Pomerleau, as Cheswick the butler, listens for further instructions; Fred Gallagher, as C.K. Dexter Haven, entertains with a song; Dinah Lord, Lisa Panagopoulos, attempts to deceive guests with some off-the-wall behavior; Camille Grandchamp and Andrew LePage, as Tracy's parents, are disturbed by their daughter's new interest.

National Honor Society

In its 52nd year of existence at Lowell High School, the National Honor Society recognizes students who meet high standards of scholarship, character, leadership, and service much in the same way as the Society of Phi Beta Kappa recognizes outstanding college students.

The annual Induction Ceremony was held on April 2nd. Highlighting the evening were the speeches of the officers and the presentation of a "thank you" plaque and flowers to Advisor Mrs. Grace Scanlan.

Li'l Abner

Under the direction of Mr. Michael Sokolowski and Mr. B. Douglas Townshend, Li'l Abner was presented by the LHS Drama and Choral Arts Departments on May 17 and 18. The story concerned a group of country hicks from Dogpatch, USA and their incredulous endeavors to save the unnecessary town from being used as a testing area for atom bombs.

The part of Li'l Abner was expertly portrayed by Fred Gallagher and Sharyn Hardy was outstanding as Daisy Mae. This show marked the end of an era. Fred Gallagher had brilliantly portrayed the male leads in the last four LHS productions. Also leaving was Marguerite Gallagher, the best stage manager LHS ever had. Li'l Abner was the last show for many other graduating seniors. Among them were Brian Pomerleau as Pappy Yokum, Bob Gregoire as Senator Jack S. Phogbound, Tammy Foley as Stupefyin' Jones, Tracy Treadwell as Available Jones, Paul Milinazzo as a crony and scientist, and Stevi Shapiro as the leading dancer. Lenny McGuire was the four year veteran pianist and Charlene Kanavos worked behind the scenes.

As usual, the show was professionally done and a huge success.

Choral Arts

Under the direction of Mr. B. Douglas Townshend, the Chorus had a very active and successful year. They performed at the Regatta Festival and at many concerts over the Christmas season. The A Capella Choir sang for the governor at the State House, at the Lowell District Court on Naturalization Day and at graduation.

Dances

Several dances were sponsored by the Student Council, National Honor Society and the Friends of Lowell High. Hundreds of Students filled Cumnock Hall and each dance was a sellout. Students danced from 8:00 till 11:30 to music provided by WLLH disc-jockeys.

Money raised from the events was used for scholarships as well as financing the Awards Banquets sponsored by the Friends of Lowell High.

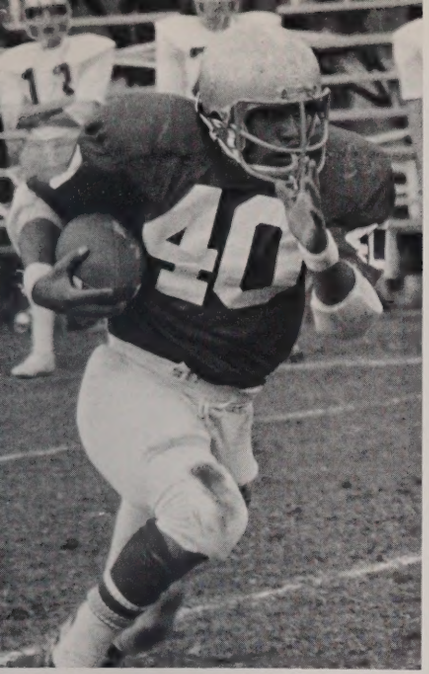
Athletics



Football

The LHS Football team emerged from the 1978 season, a rebuilding year, with a 3-6 record. The squad faced one of the toughest schedules in the state which included four division champion teams. Captain Gary Camacho was backed up defensively by nose-guard Jim Bailey, and secondary backs Scott Allen and Paul Demers. Quarterback Dan McNamara directed the offense with tight end Dan McCafferty and flanker Bill Riley on the receiving end of McNamara's aerials, and George Danas lent stability to a young offensive front.

In the unsung category Lowell had the powerful blocking of fullback Chick Manousos and guard Todd Beati.

The season was highlighted by the 26-7 Thanksgiving Day victory over Lawrence and Superstar Mark Shaughnessy's collecting over 200 yards in the game to give him 1005 yards rushing for the 1978 campaign.

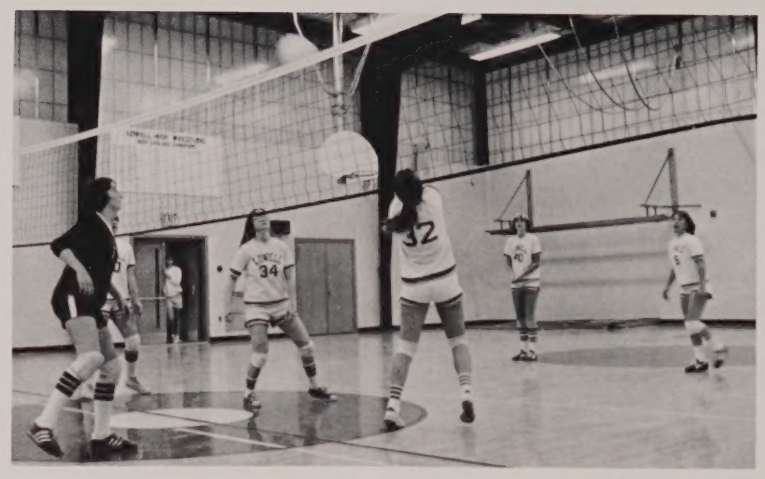
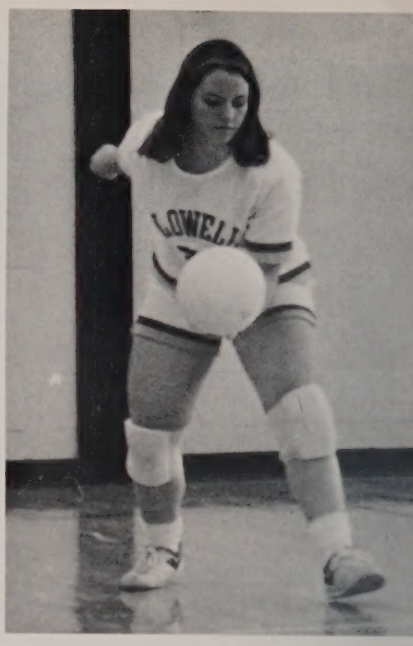
Volleyball





Although the Lowell High School Volleyball season was not a winning one, the girls fared well for such an inexperienced team. They faced a very competitive schedule and boasted victories over such experienced locals as Lawrence, Dracut, and Chelmsford.

Highlighting the year was the naming of co-captain Ann McCormack to the Lowell Sun's list of Volleyball All-Stars. The girls were also honored at the 1st Annual Lowell High School Fall Sports Banquet where they were presented with trophies and letter jackets by Coach Sue Olsen.

Gymnastics

The 1978-79 sports season was highlighted by the impressive 11-0 record of the Lowell High Girls' Gymnastics Team. For the first time since its formation the team made the state competition. The girls placed fourth in the district and seventh in the state.

Tri-captain Gail Sweeney led the team with her outstanding 31 first places in duel competition as well as placing first on the balance beam, sixth on the uneven parallel bars, and fourth all around in the state meet. The successful season of Gail Sweeney was made complete by her being named to the Boston Globe's List of All Stars. Sophomore Brenda Benoit was Lowell's second highest all around competitor. Sue Ramalho, tri-captain and four year veteran, graced the team as the third all around competitor. Tri-captain Robin Murphy, completing her third year on the team, fared well in the balance beam, floor exercises and vaulting events.

With the number of underclassmen, the next few Lowell High gymnastics seasons look to be as sensational as 1978-79 was.

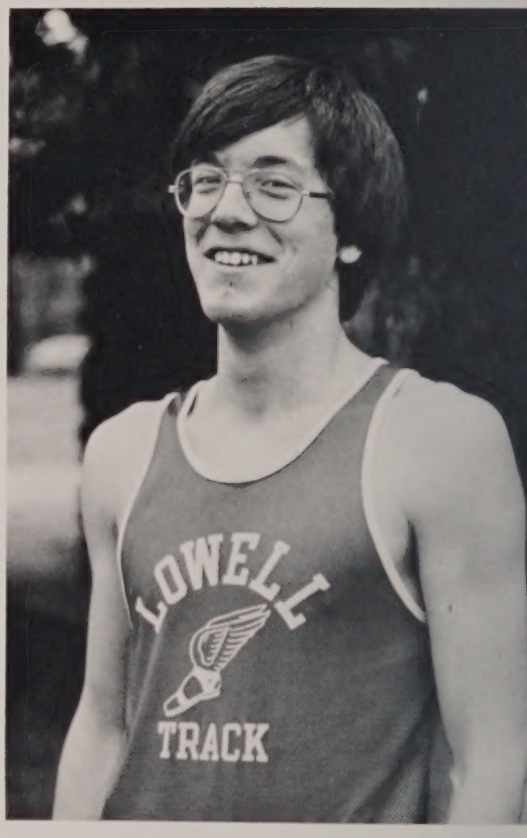
Cross Country

Lowell High underclassmen led the cross country team to a commendable 5-5 season. Under the supervision of head coach John Lang and assistant coach Steve Ronan the team defeated Arlington, Lowell Voke, Ayer, Lawrence Voke, and Dracut.

Junior captain Tim Phelps excelled by winning six individual races and competing in the state cross crountry competition. Tom Neylon and Dan Levy also contributed much to the season as well as Peter Reilly, Dan Phelps and Chris Donahue.



At the Fall Sports Awards Banquet, Tim Phelps was named the most valuable team member and sophomore Jim Murray received the most improved runner award.

Golf

Under the leadership of Co-captains Barry Connolly and Mike Reilly, Mr. Joe Petros' LHS Golf team emerged victorious this year with a final record of 9-3-1.
Senior Dave Kenney had five wins, Barry Connolly, Dave Ferry and Steve Petros each boasted six wins, Paul Slattery and Matt Demaras had seven wins apiece and Mike Reilly was victorious eight times.
At the Awards Banquet, Steve Petros was named team MVP, Mike Reilly received the Coach's Award and Matt Demaras was given the Most Improved Player Award.

Boys' Track

Although it was not a very successful dual meet season, the Boys' Track team did have some fine individual performers.

Captain Mike Jankowski was the most outstanding track star. In most meets, he competed in four events and usually scored in all four; the 100, 220, long jump and triple jump. He finished 4th in the State Class A meet and made it into the semi-finals in the State Meet.

Triple jumper James Mitchell also placed 4th in the Class A meet, but missed out in the State finals. Jeff Arsenault and Tom Neylon also qualified for the Class A meet, but failed to place.

Lettermen for the season were Dan Levy, Tom Neylon, Pete Reilly, Mike Jankowski, John Brouillette, James Mitchell, Paul Furtado, Bob Furtado, Steve Gendron, Jim Murray, Shawn Noonan, Jeff Arsenault, Tim Phelps, Brian Foye, Chris Donahue, Mark Kloza, Steve Psaladakis and Tracy Mitchell.

At the Spring Awards Banquet, Mike Jankowski was awarded the Outstanding Trackman Trophy. The Most Improved award went to Tom Neylon and Dan Levy was presented with the Coaches' award for dedication and effort.

Girls' Track

The Lowell High School girls' track team enjoyed perhaps the finest season of its tender existence this year, breaking 10 school records en route to a 5-6 record.

The team's three seniors, Co-captains Tanya Ecklund and Anne Hill and Barbara Wallace played prominent roles in the successful campaign. Tanya set a school record in the 100-meter hurdles, ran on two school record-setting relay teams and qualified for the state meet in the javelin. Anne was a consistent scorer in the 440. Barbara qualified for the state meet in the high jump.

Several other girls played leading roles in the team's season. Junior Kelly Keefe was undefeated in the shot put, setting a school record in that event. Kelly finished third in the State Class A meet and seventh in the All-State meet. Sophomore Jill Stamp led the team in scoring and was the most versatile performer, consistently winning the 440, 880, high jump and long jump. She set a school record in the high jump and ran on two school record-setting relay teams. Jill qualified for the state meet in four events. Sophomore sprinter Sharon Gettings set school records in the 100- and 200- yd. dashes and ran on two school record-setting relay teams.

Boys' Basketball

The LHS Boys' Basketball team, although disappointed at failing to reach the state tournament, boasted an exciting and winning season.

The team was lead by junior co-captain Tracy "Dr T." Mitchell whose display of outside shots, drives to the hoop, and sky-walker dunks added spice to the offense. Tracy also sparked the season with his outstanding defensive playing.

Co-captain Peter Michailides did a superb job of offensive and defensive rebounding as well as displaying his soft touch off the glass.

Other seniors contributing to Coach Charlie Ryan's talented 1978-79 squad were quick guard John Sevastis, strong forward and center Ted "Bubba" Slattery, and high-skying center Victor Thompson. The consistence of Dan McNamara and swing-man Rich Larry also aided Lowell's powerful offense.

Highlighting the season was the electrifying one point victory over Acton-Boxboro in the finals of the Second Annual Christmas Tournament held at ULowell. Tracy Mitchell was unanimously chosen as the tournament MVP.

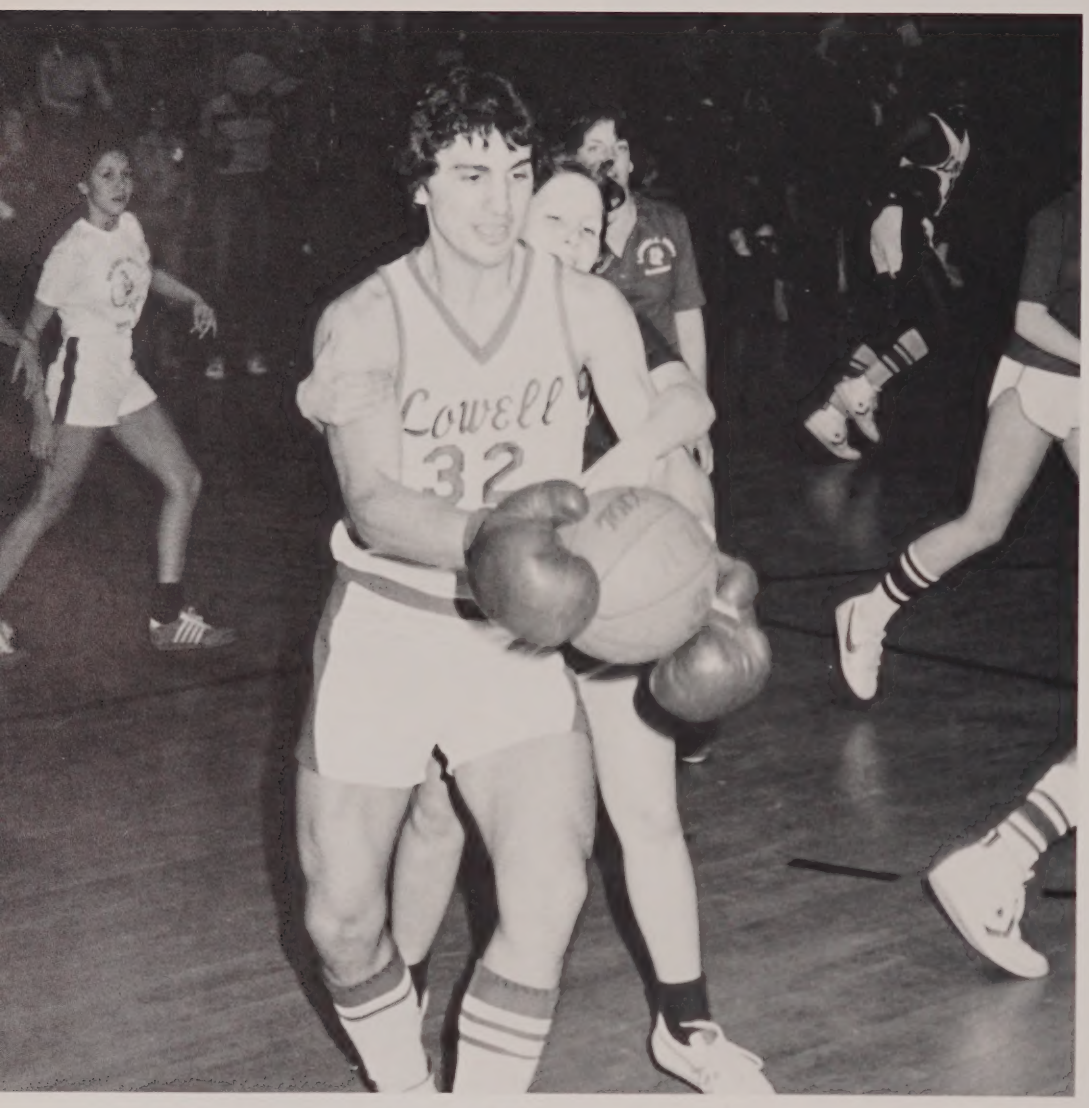
Roundball Night



On Friday evening, March 30, the annual Roundball Night was held at Scondras Gym. The freshman basketball team waged a winning battle against the elementary and junior high school teachers. Youth overwhelmed experience a second time as the JV team defeated the high school faculty.

The varsity players bowed to the varsity cheerleaders 12-4. However, in all fairness to the boys, they did have to wear boxing gloves. Then came the feature attraction: the varsity team vs. the LHS alumni. It was an exciting, fast-paced game and, to the surprise of many, the varsity team emerged victorious with a final score of 40-26.

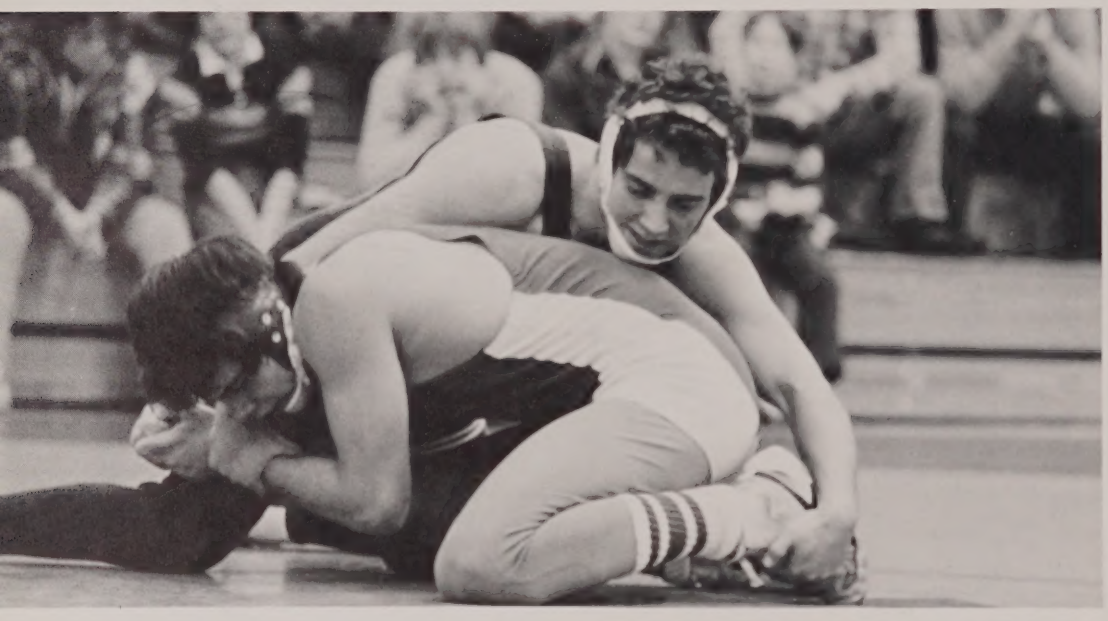
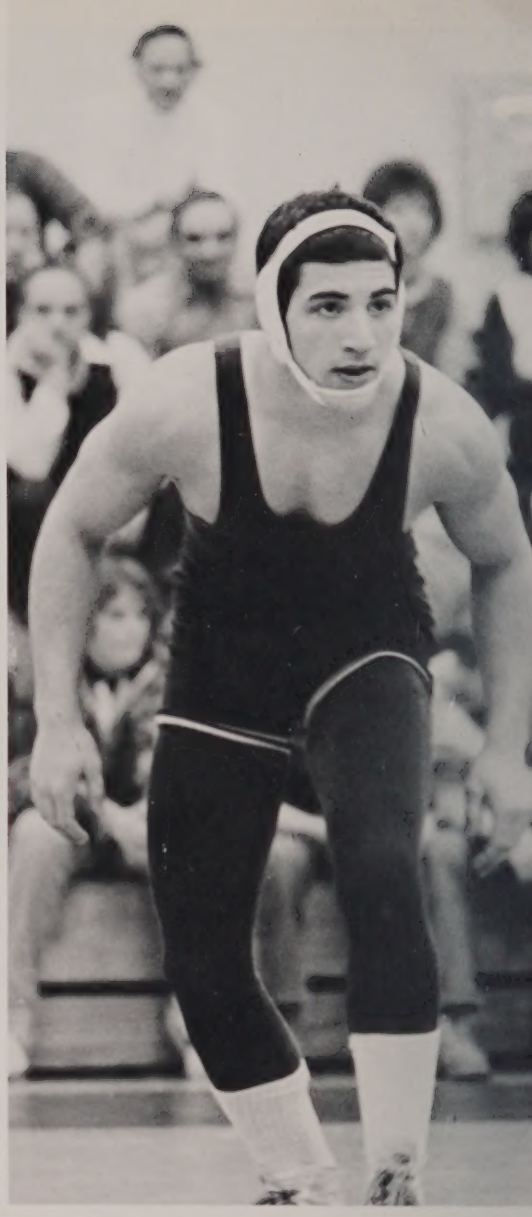
Wrestling

LHS Wrestling had one of its most successful dual-meet seasons in its history. The grapplers compiled a 17-1 record, dropping only one close decision to Quincy. The end of the season was hampered with injuries, spoiling the wrestlers' attempt at a state title.

Among the outstanding dual-meet records were co-captain Gary Camacho's 13-2-1 and co-captain Steve Soucy's 16-1. Other outstanding senior matmen included Phil Conroy (14-2), Mike Stinebiser, Gary Dillon, Mike Kuenzler, and Steve Quigley.





Junior standouts included Scott McQuaide (12-0) and Bob Brouillette (14-2).

Phil Conroy was runner-up in the State Tournament, while 4th and 5th places went to Scott McQuaide and Steve Quigley, respectively. At the award ceremonies, the Rough Raider award was presented to seniors Phil Conroy and Steve Quigley.

Girls' Basketball

Coach Bob Boehm's hoopsters came out of a toilsome season with a 10-12 record. The team was handicapped by the loss of senior co-captain Venus Soukaras because of injuries. However that didn't slow down the hustle of co-captain Sue Petullo and the dribbling ability of Janice Bilby. Dianne Weissbach's eye for the basket as well as her strong defensive playing proved to be invaluable to the team. The height of senior center Ann McCormack made jump balls and rebounds an ease for Lowell.

Sophomore Lisa Lucas was the team's high scorer and was named to the Lowell Sun's List of All Stars. She and junior Dede Demetroulakos have been named next year's captains.

At the Winter Sports Awards Banquet the girls were presented with letter jackets and trophies. Lisa Lucas received the Most Valuable Player Award, Sue Petullo the Outstanding Senior Award, and Janice Bilby the Outstanding Guard Award. Dianne Weissbach secured the award for Most Courageous Player and junior Eileen McNamara was named Most Improved Player.

Hockey

This year's Hockey team finished off the season with an impressive 14-4-2 record. The season was highlighted by such thrillers as against Lynn when the icemen entered the third period down two goals and proceeded to score six, letting none by. The team made its way to the Division II CAC Tournament but lost the first game to Masconomet.

Seniors were the core and power of the team this year. Jim Britton led the team in scoring with 25 goals for the season. Veterans Frank Finnerty, Tom Macleod and Charlie "Block the Shot" Flood were among the senior powerhouses, as well as John Ward who scored an amazing five goals in the first game of the season. Goalie Don Landry set a new school record with his five brilliant shutouts and was named the team's MVP. The record might have been even more outstanding had the team not suffered the loss of Scott Bovill who was out with injuries for the better part of the season.

Baseball

The LHS Baseball team had one of the most exciting and successful seasons of the 1978-79 sports year. With a record of 16-3, the team entered the state tournament and made its way to the semi-final round before its defeat at the hands of Acton-Boxboro.

Clockwise from center: Larry Machado hurls another strike; Scorekeeper Karen Gillis; varsity team; Dan McNamara concentrates as third base coach; Bill Riley tags out another one.

Seniors were the power of the team this year. Larry Machado ended up with a 8-1 pitching record, was a Lowell Sun Player of the Year, and was named to the Boston Globe's All Scholastic Team. Others contributing to the powerful pitching staff were Dan McNamara (5-0) and Dan McHale (5-2).

Catcher Ted Slattery was at the other end of the hurls, seldom letting a ball by and often gunning down potential base stealers.

Shortstop Bill Riley was the outstanding offensive player, securing the highest batting average on the team. Bill was also named to the Sun's List of All-Stars.

Defense was the key word this year and the perfectly executed Riley-Bill Silk-Jerry Kennedy double play combination was essential to the team's victories. Powerfully defensive outfielders included Joe Rocha and Chick Manousos. Other important utility men were Paul Demers and Vic Bisson.

The season came to a close with the Awards Banquet and the team party at Captain Ted Slattery's house.

Softball

This year's softball team did an about-face from last year, advancing to the Quarter Final round of the Division I State Softball Tournament. The team finished with a 13-5 record, playing a tough independent schedule. They swept the season series with Acton-Boxboro, Lowell Voke, Keith Hall, and Bedford.

Senior Co-captain Moe Ouellette led the offense and received a Coaches' Award and was selected on the Lowell Sun's All-Star Team. Seniors Janice Bilby and Moe Leahy (Coaches' Award and honorable mention on the Sun All-Star Team) also had outstanding seasons.

Tootie Charron and Becky Obdens contributed great relief pitching, while Lee Fuller and Dianne Weissbach contributed in the infield. Freshman Tammy Therrien was selected to the Sun's All-Star Team, with Freshman shortstop Robin LaBrecque receiving honorable mention. The Sun named Coach Sue Callahan as Coach of the Year.

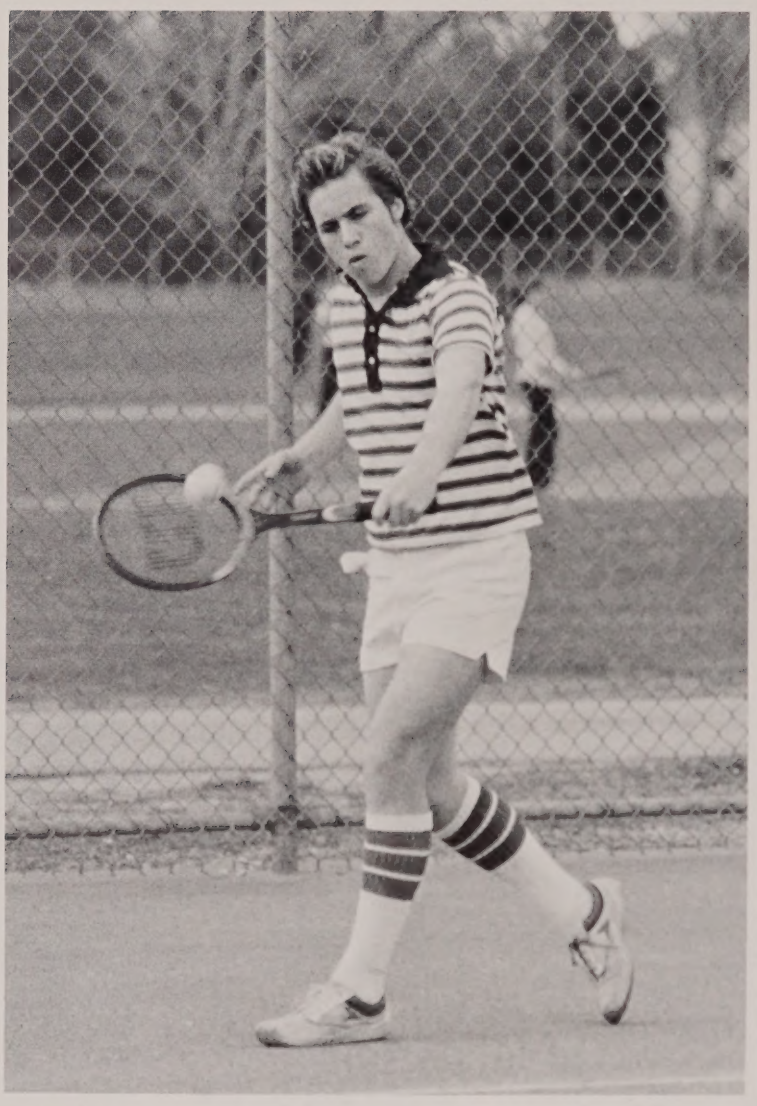
Boys' Tennis



Although the 1978-79 season was one of frustration and confusion, the future holds expectations of bigger and brighter things from the underclassmen of this year's team.

A rigorous practice schedule was introduced by new coach Charles Shadan, through whose efforts the team received uniforms for the first time in the school's history.

The boys were led by senior Co-captain and MVP Dennis Sullivan and senior Co-captain Brian Reynolds. Other outstanding racquetmen included senior Joe Longtin, junior Mike Sullivan, recipient of the Coach's Award, juniors Jim Foley, Mike Byers and Alan Taupier, sophomores Joe and John Murray and Kevin McPhee and freshman Gene Welch, who received the award for the Most Improved Player.

A host of other freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will return next year to vie for positions on next year's squad.

In its second year of existence, the Raymond E. Riddick Memorial Scholarship, awarded to students who exemplify the qualities of the late football coach, was presented to: Susan Petullo, Karen Gillis, Dan McCafferty, Dan McNamara, Todd Beati, Ann McCormack, and Candace Bedrosian.

Ann McCormack and Lauretta Surprenant received Acre Model Neighborhood Organization Scholarships.

John Cull received the LHS Achievement Award for English and one of the four National Merit Letters of Commendation. The other three recipients were Gerald Cahill, Kevin Geoffroy, and Brian Reynolds.

Sharon McCaffrey was presented with the LHS Achievement Award for French. Sharon was also one of the recipients of the LHS Officers Alumnae Scholarships. Theresa Mahoney received one and Linda Kelly and Angela Vezina received Honorable Mention.

Wang Laboratory Scholarships were awarded to Angela, Heidi Swan, Eric Canales, Bruce Bakke and Peter Michailides. Bruce received the LHS Alumni Association Prize for excellence in Math as well as the Wang Scholarship.

Clockwise from top: Sharon McCaffrey receives the LHS Achievement Award for French; Richard Sigman receives the LHS Achievement Award for Business; Stella Giannakopoulos is awarded the Alliance Francaise Book Prize; Anthony Silva receives one of his many awards.

Sharyn Hardy was awarded the AAUW College Club Book Prize presented to the highest ranking junior girl. Sharyn and Fred Gallagher received Alumni Players Prizes.

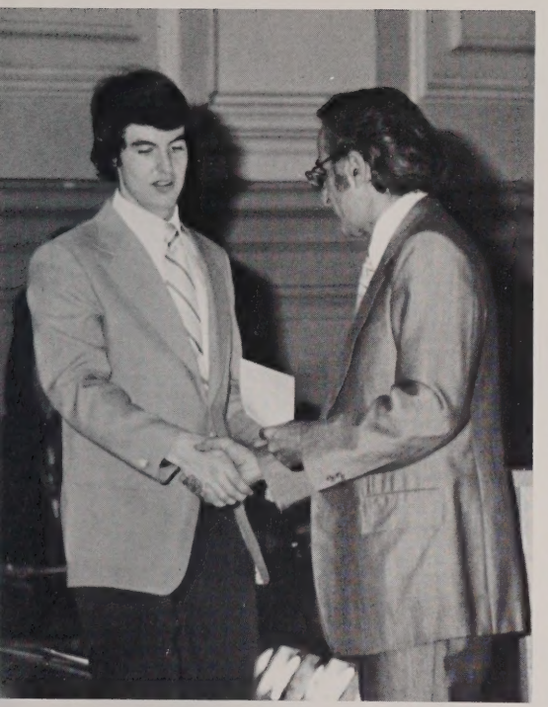
In the music department, the Class Odist Award went to Charlene Kanavos and Leonard McGuire. Leonard was also the recipient of the Choral Arts Scholarship. The LHS Faculty Club Music Award went to Bob Gregoire and the Arion Award for the outstanding member of the band, to Robert Donovan.

Other scholarships and awards presented included: the Lowell 5¢ Savings Bank Scholarship to Donna Buczek; the Lowell Institution for Savings Scholarships to Paul Caron and Joe Rocha; the Georgia Sarris Foundation Award to Kathie Kokas and Joan Hayes; the Commonwealth Federal Savings Bank Scholarship to Phil Conroy; the DAR Good Citizenship Award to Colleen Wood; the Alice L. Cluin Award, given to the highest ranking student in Latin II, to Philip McMahon; and the Charles D. Foley Award, presented to the highest ranking student in Latin III, to Michael Sullivan.

Sandra Soseos received the Dolores M. Regan Memorial Scholarship given to a graduate of the Daley School.

The Joseph W. Burns Award, to the senior captain in AFJROTC, went to Rebecca Obdens.

Clockwise from above: LHS Officers scholarships are awarded; Wendy Merrill is presented with the Franklin E. Johnson Book Prize; Phil Conroy receives the Commonwealth Federal Savings Bank Scholarship; students wait for the next award presentation.



The Union National Band Award for excellence in accounting went to Donald McLaughlin and for excellence in shorthand to Melissa Duarte.

LHS Achievement Awards went to Richard Sigman for Business and Kim Cryan for Spanish.

Several book prizes were distributed. Among them were: the Lowell Post #87 American Legion Book Prizes for excellence in U.S. History to Daniel Levy and Raymond Espinola; the Franklin E. Johnson Book Prize for excellence in English to Wendy Merrill; the Lowell Harvard Club Book Prize, given to the highest ranking junior boy, to Maurice Foucher; the Greek Book Prize to Alice Palantzas and the Alliance Francais Book Prize to Stella Giannakopoulos.

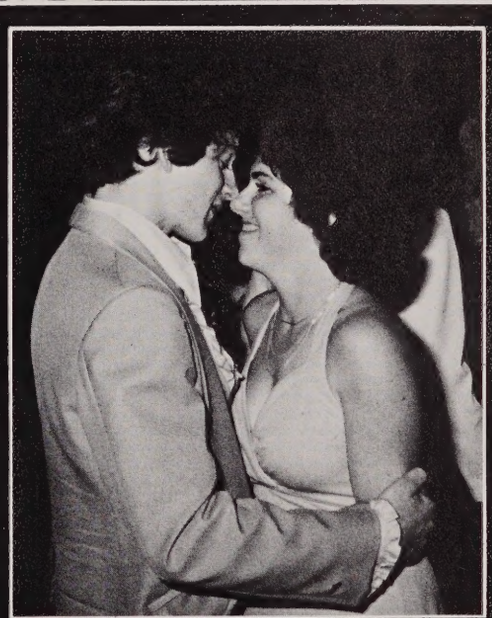
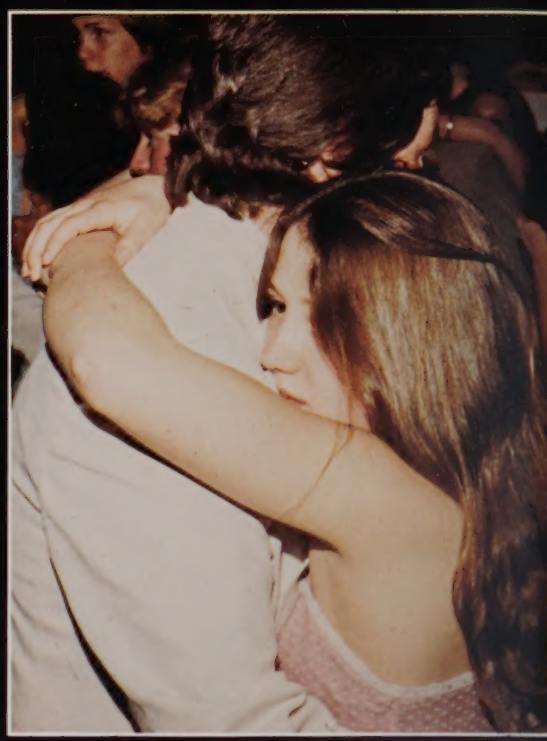
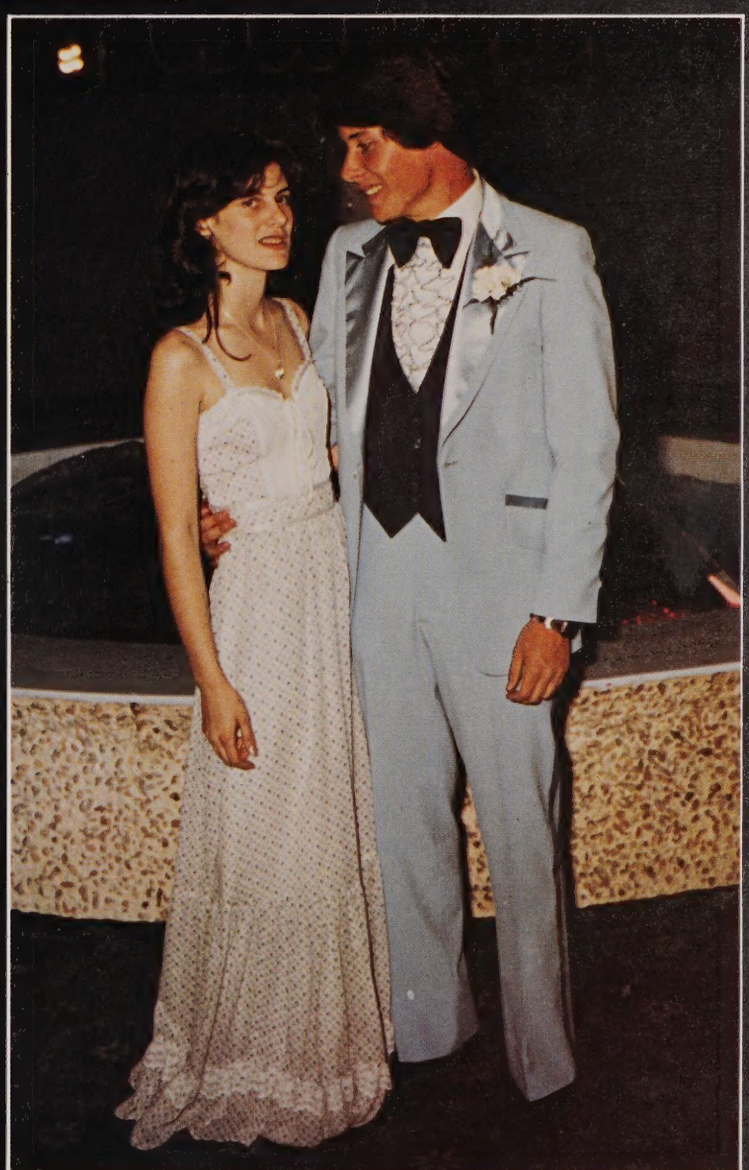
The Prom

Friday night . . . June 1st . . . the Chateau de Ville . . . the hour long drive to Framingham . . . chandeliers and fountains . . . roast beef and potatoes . . . the Works . . . Brian Sullivan's strip tease to "Heartbreak Hotel" . . . seeing your teachers in gowns and tuxes (or TRYING to see them!!) . . . "Ob-la-di, Ob-la-da" . . . the Stage Door Disco downstairs . . . the two hour long ride to the beach . . . all night parties . . . finally getting to sleep June 2, 10:30 a.m. . . . trying to get up June 2, 4:30 p.m. . . . a night (and morning) to remember . . . the Prom.







Graduation

Wednesday, June 6, 1979 . . . the BIG day . . . red and gray caps and gowns . . . the National Honor Society's gold stoles . . . pre-ceremony chatter . . . pre-ceremony farewells . . . not knowing which side your tassels are supposed to be on . . . finding your place in line at exactly 7:24 . . . the first few notes of "Pomp and Circumstance" . . . the slower-than-slow march (crawl?) into the auditoruim . . . Headmaster Stamas speaking on the attributes of wisdom, skill and virtue — "the core of the education that you have received" . . . the standing ovation given to Mr. O'Brien by 546 fans . . . the final appearance of the graduating seniors in the chorus . . .

From top: A serious moment; Carney Medalists Gary Stuer, Anthony Silva, Salutatorian Kevin McCarron, Valedictorian Sharon Valentine, Barbara Doyle, and Donna Buczek; pre-graduation fraternizing.

Salutatorian Kevin McCarron's words of inspiration . . . President Todd Beati's wish that we "continue to be friends of Lowell High School" . . . Mayor Raymond Rourke . . . "Drifting Wind" by Lenny McGuire and Charlene Kanavos . . . Dr. Patrick Mogan . . . the presentation of the Carney Medals . . . Honorable Mentions given to the twenty-six students whose averages were 90% or better . . . perfect attendance . . . Valedictorian Sharon Valentine's look at the seventies . . .

the anxious moments experienced while awaiting the sound of your name being called . . . walking across the stage as your cheering section explodes (or, at least, as it applauds politely) . . . receiving your Lowell High School diploma . . . throwing your cap into the air before Rev. Jakul has a chance to start the benediction . . . saying your goodbyes in the crowded halls . . . heading for the site of that all-night party . . . reminiscing, laughing, and almost crying . . . the end of your high school years . . .

Join the people who've joined the Army.

Since the end of the draft a lot of young people are discovering a good place to invest their time. The Army.

They've come, over 375,000 strong, for things they may not have found anywhere else. Some came for the job training. Where else can you get your choice of hundreds of good jobs? Some, for the chance to travel. Where else can you get to go almost anywhere in the world?

Some came for the personal challenge. Where else can you get as much responsibility out of high school? Some, for education. Where else can you get a good head start on college? (With up to 75% of your tuition and fees paid for while you're in the Army.)

Some came for the financial rewards. Where else can you get a starting salary of $419.00 a month (before deductions) and a raise to $467.00 in just six months? (Plus free meals, housing, medical and dental care, a 30-day paid vacation every year, and low cost transportation to help you enjoy it.)

And some came for a different kind of reward. Where else can you do a service to yourself while you're being of service to your country?
